Women's Day Skit 2019 Report

- Faculty In-Charge: Prof. Nakul Sutar
- Name of the Event : Women's Day Celebration
- Organizer: New VIVA College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Virar (W)
- Date: 8th March, 2019

Women Empowerment Skit: #Respect

Introduction:

'Women's Day Celebration' is an initiative taken by VIVA Trust. In this event there were various activities organized like Skit, street play, elocution, essay writing. All colleges under VIVA trust were invited to participate in this event. This event was held at New VIVA College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Virar (W).

VIVA Institute of Applied Art presented a Skit in this event.

Event Objective:

The primary goal of 'Women's Day Celebration – Skit & street play' was to create awareness among the women & society regarding Women's problems, their strength, and importance in the society through Performing Art. Women's rights, gender equality & women empowerment are the main points given on which the skit or street play should be performed.

About the Skit:

The Skit '#Respect' talk on the women's place in the society. Girls in various age groups face the problems at various places such as schools, market areas, offices. But some people don't understand or they don't want to accept the importance of each & every women in the society. So, we put the problems women face in different situations & how the society should accept the strength, need & equal rights to the women.

Conclusion:

Team of 10 students (6 girls & 4 boys) from all the classes presented the skit under the direction of In Charge professor. Such activities enhance the team work, mature thinking, fruitful discussions & personality development of the students.
